PERSONAL STORAGE COMPANION

With more organizations using 'free address' benches for focus work, it can be hard to find a place for your personal things. Bill is here to help; taking in your gear, providing a place for a friend to perch, and giving a leg-up on lower back pressure. He's light on his feet – with a flick of the foot you can draw him in or nudge him away. He is the perfect companion to nest under tables and gives standing-height desk users a new favorite accessory.
